WEBMD

In partnership with Stand Up to Cancer, WebMD will bring the SU2C mission to our community. WebMD welcomes over 100 million unique visitors each year. As the leading brand of health information, WebMD touches one out of every two US adults, three out of every four women and 95% of all adults seeking health information online.

WebMD is committed to cancer prevention and detection, educating during treatments and connecting patients and caregivers in our community. WebMD provides access to high-quality health information at home, work and physician's offices.

Medscape from WebMD, is an educational resource for physicians. Medscape's Oncology site provides in-depth news and emerging clinical data to ensure Oncologists have the latest research findings so that patients receive the highest quality care.

WebMD is proud to be a SU2C media partner in our ongoing efforts to fight cancer. Working together as one powerful voice, we are standing up to cancer.
